

ASE's Delegation to The 29th Annual EAIE Conference and Exhibition in Seville, Spain

During September 12-15, 2017, ASE's Delegation led by PhD Prof. Constantin Proftiroiu, Vice-rector for International Relations, participates in the 29th Annual EAIE Conference and Exhibition in Seville, Spain. The event organized by the European Association for International Education is one of the most prestigious events on the international education market, with over 5700 participants from higher education institutions in over 90 countries.

ASE's representatives aim to consolidate the University's image on the international markets, to establish contacts in view of concluding new educational and research partnerships at international level, and to explore opportunities for cooperation with Spanish universities and Romanian communities in Spain.

ASE's delegation comprises PhD Prof. Cecilia Ioana Popescu – Deputy-Dean of the Faculty of Marketing, PhD Prof. Ion Popa – Dean of the Faculty of Management, PhD Associate prof. Anca Bogdan – Director of International Relations, PhD Assistant prof. Cătălin Ploae – specialist in International Relations. (The visit is funded by means of the national project CNFIS-FDI-2017-0427 – Developing internationalization support structures within The Bucharest University of Economic Studies).
