

The Faculty of Administration and Public Management

Bachelor's domain: Administration and Public Management

General competences:

- ✓ knowledge, understanding and application of fundamental Public Administration concepts, theories, principles and methods of economic investigation and exploration, against the background of knowledge-based society
- ✓ ability to explain and interpret ideas, processes, phenomena, and trends specific to micro- and macro-economic activities
- ✓ collecting, analyzing and interpreting quantitative and qualitative data and information regarding a specific problem
- ✓ analyzing various states of affairs, assuming responsibilities for problem-solving, communication and argumentation of work results
- ✓ ability to work independently or as part of a team to solve issues arising in specific professional contexts
- ✓ ability to use modern information technology to edit texts, process data and access databases specific for the activity of various organizational structures
- ✓ oral and written professional communication in at least one foreign language
- ✓ upon obtaining a Bachelor's degree in Economics and a graduation certificate which attests to the successful completion of the Teacher Training Module, graduates are eligible for a teaching position at pre-university level

Specific competences:

- ✓ knowledge, understanding and use of specific public sector concepts, theories and models, as applying to the Romanian public administration realities, as well as awareness and promotion of European values in the field
- ✓ ability to explain and interpret the characteristics of public organizations, services and function
- ✓ ability to use modern Public Management principles, methods, tools and techniques and to administer economic and financial operations
- ✓ ability to analyze current phenomena characterizing the Romanian administrative and economic environment