

The Faculty of Accounting and Management Information Systems

Bachelor's domain: Accounting and Management Information Systems

General competences:

- ✓ knowledge, understanding and application of fundamental concepts, theories, principles and methods of investigation and exploration specific to the economic field
- ✓ ability to explain and interpret ideas, processes, phenomena, and trends specific to micro- and macro-economic activities, against the background of the knowledge-based society
- ✓ collecting, analyzing and interpreting quantitative and qualitative data and information regarding a specific problem
- ✓ analyzing various states of affairs, assuming responsibilities for problem-solving, communication and argumentation of work results
- ✓ ability to work independently or as part of a team to solve issues arising in specific professional contexts
- ✓ ability to use modern information technology to edit texts, process data and access databases specific for the activity of various organizational structures
- ✓ oral and written professional communication in at least one foreign language
- ✓ upon obtaining a Bachelor's degree in Economics and a graduation certificate which attests to the successful completion of the Teacher Training Module, graduates are eligible for a teaching position at pre-university level

Specific competences:

- ✓ knowledge, understanding and application of concepts specific to the interdisciplinary approach of transactions and operations recorded in accounting, as well as of the possibilities of computerization relevant for the field
- ✓ ability to professionally use practice-oriented accounting and management information systems, accounting techniques and specific software
- ✓ ability to analyze, synthesize and interpret the necessary accounting information to evaluate problems and potential solutions
- ✓ ability to professionally communicate about computerized accounting information with a view to assessing strategic and operational decisions at organizational level