

The Faculty of Agrifood and Environmental Economics

Bachelor's domain: Agrifood and Environmental Economics

General competences:

- ✓ knowledge, understanding and application of fundamental concepts, theories, principles and methods of investigation and exploration specific to the economic field
- ✓ ability to explain and interpret ideas, processes, phenomena, and trends specific to micro- and macro-economic activities, against the background of the knowledge-based society
- ✓ collecting, analyzing and interpreting quantitative and qualitative data and information regarding a specific problem
- ✓ analyzing various states of affairs, assuming responsibilities for problem-solving, communication and argumentation of work results
- ✓ ability to work independently or as part of a team to solve issues arising in specific professional contexts
- ✓ ability to use modern information technology to edit texts, process data and access databases specific for the activity of various organizational structures
- ✓ oral and written professional communication in at least one foreign language
- ✓ upon obtaining a Bachelor's degree in Economics and a graduation certificate which attests to the successful completion of the Teacher Training Module, graduates are eligible for a teaching position at pre-university level

Specific competences:

- ✓ knowledge, understanding and application of concepts and methods specific to agribusiness operations and natural capital management
- ✓ participating in the elaboration and management of business plans and programs of activities at branch, enterprise or product level
- ✓ elaborating accounting documents and financial, economic and statistical reports for companies operating in the field
- ✓ ability to conduct conjectural analyses and market surveys to consolidate product, pricing, distribution and promotion policies regarding agricultural and food products
- ✓ ability to promote and implement environmental policies in the development strategies and programs adopted at local, national or international level