

ADMISSION PROCEDURES 2018 FOR MBA STUDY PROGRAMS

In what follows, you can find detailed information regarding Admission procedures for both EU citizens and Non-EU citizens who are interested in attending an MBA study program offered by The Bucharest University of Economic Studies in the 2018-2019 academic year.

Admission procedures for both EU and non-EU citizens

EU and non-EU citizens who are interested in attending an MBA study program at The Bucharest University of Economic Studies follow the same admission procedures as Romanian candidates, as follows:

Admission to MBA programs

I. The Romanian-Canadian MBA program (taught in English)

The program is co-organized by ASE's Bucharest Business School and Ecole des Sciences de la Gestion from Universite du Quebec a Montreal (UQAM), Canada.

Admission takes place as follows:

Submission of application files: January 07 - September 24, 2018

Admission steps: evaluation of the application file, interview.

Graduates from The Romanian-Canadian MBA are awarded a Canadian MBA degree and a Romanian Master's degree.

Website of The Romanian-Canadian MBA : <http://canadian-mba.ro/>

II. The Romanian-French INDE MBA program (taught in English)

The program is co-organized by ASE's Bucharest Business School and the National Conservatory of Arts and Crafts - CNAM Paris.

Admission takes place as follows:

Submission of application files: June 11 - 16, 2018 and, function of availability, September 10-15, 2018.

Admission steps: evaluation of the application file, oral exam.

Graduates from The Romanian-French INDE MBA program are awarded a French MBA degree by CNAM Paris and a Romanian Master's degree by ASE.

Website The Romanian-French INDE MBA program: <http://inde.ro/>

III. The Romanian-German MBA program in Entrepreneurial Management (taught in German)

The program is co-organized by ASE's Bucharest Business School and Westphalia University of Applied Sciences, Germany.

Admission takes place as follows:

Submission of application files: January 07- September 24, 2018

Admission steps: evaluation of the application file, interview.

Graduates from The Romanian-German MBA in Entrepreneurial Management are awarded a German MBA degree by Westphalia University of Applied Sciences and a Romanian Master's degree by ASE.

Website of The Romanian-German MBA program: <http://rd-mba.ase.ro/>