PRESS RELEASE

Bucharest, November 8, 2019

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies maintains its notable positioning in Times Higher Education World University Rankings by Subject 2020 – in the fields of Business & Economics and Social Sciences

The Bucharest University of Economic Studies is ranked 501+ in the field of Business & Economics and 601+ in the field of Social Sciences, according to the Times Higher Education World University Rankings by Subject 2020, released on November 6, 2019.

This year's edition of the classification lists only four Romanian universities in the two subjects, all member universities of the "Universitaria" Consortium, ranked on the same places. The Romanian universities present in the top are: the Bucharest University of Economic Studies, the "Alexandru Ioan Cuza" University of Iași, the "Babeș-Bolyai" University of Cluj and the University of Bucharest.

The ranking analyzes the best research-intensive universities in the world, on the following criteria: the quality of the teaching and learning environment; research volume, income and reputation; research influence; the degree of internationalization, and industry income.
